

BEING SOFT, BEING STRONG

A Day of Yoga Practise with Bill Wood

SUNDAY 7th FEBRUARY 2021

Niland Conference Centre, Rosary Priory

93 Elstree Rd, Bushey WD23 4EE

10.00am - 4.00pm Cost £60

Paradoxically the softer and looser we become, the stronger and more vital our yoga practice can start to feel. Exploring this theme, this workshop will be posture based, with periods of relaxation and sitting practice woven in.

A yoga teacher since 1994, Bill runs weekly classes in south Devon, and weekend workshops and retreats all around the UK. While inspired by many different yoga and meditation traditions, his main influence has been the teachings of the late Vanda Scaravelli, and he continues to study with Sandra Sabatini, one of her longest standing students. Before that he studied for 18 years with Diane Long, trained at length with John Stirk and Sophie Hoare, and is also qualified as a Sivananda Teacher, as a Yoga Therapist (YBT), and as a Core Process Psychotherapist. Bill holds a warm and enquiring teaching environment that is open to all levels of experience.

The morning will be held in the beautiful setting of the Rosary Priory in Bushey. It is absolutely stunning. We will have use of an area to eat our packed lunch and tea/coffee are provided. There are eating places a few minutes by car in Bushey High Rd. There is plenty of parking and Public Transport connections are good.
